{ ASTROLOGICAL An { ASTRONOMICAL { METEOROLOGICAL } Essay

For the Year of our Lord God, 1685.

And from the World's Creation, 5634.

Being the first after Bissexile, or Leap-Year.

Wherein is contained.

The Scheme of the World's Revolution, Predictions of the general Affairs of several Parts of Europe, Lunations, Eclipses, Monthly Observations, Tables of the Tides, Terms, and their Returns; the rising and setting of the Sun and Moon, together with her Southing and Configurations to the other Planets; as also something touching the Influence of the late Comets, and Conjunctions of Saturn and Jupiter, with useful Tables, and other Regalities fitting such a Subject. Accommodated and referred properly to the Meridian of the August and Famous City of London, whose Zenith is distant from the Equator Northward 51 deg. 32 min. yet it may indifferently serve any part of England, Scotland and Ireland.

By DANIEL WOODWARD,

Professor of Physick and Astrology, at the sign of the Globe in Strand-street by St. Clements Church in the Strand, London.

Magna utilis est Astrologia, & summa Voluptas, animo Bel-luum Voluptatibus non corrupto, mirabilis effectus Syderum in his inferioribus corporibus cognoscere, & sic quasi per gradus quosdam, ad Parentem & Authorem rerum universarum Deum ascendere.

LONDON Printed by J. D. for the Company of STATIONERS. 1685.

To his ingenious and very loving Friend, Mr. SAMUEL
RIXON of Yeavel, in the County of Somerset.

Sir!

Should I innumerate the Reasons of this Dedication, I presume my Limits would be too narrow to sum up the Particulars your indefatigable Love and Kindness have laid upon me: wherefore, to acquit my self of the sin of Ingratitude, in what I could, I humbly crave your Pardon, for prefixing your Name to this unworthy Manual of Astrological Predictions and Observations; which are drawn from the Motions and Configurations of the Magnalia Dei. Besides your innumerable ways to promote my Interest and Fame, you are known to have Skill in Astrology your self, and not only in this Science, but also in many things Mathematical; inso-much that should I not inform the World of your perpetual Kindness towards me, and of your Acquaintance with ingenious Sciences, no Man would be accounted more ingrateful than my self, who am obliged to be (Sir,)

Your humble and

obsequious Servant,

From the Globe
in Apudal-street
by St. Clement's
Church in the
Strand, July 14.
1684.

DANIEL WOODWARD.

Ad Lectorem.

Courteous Reader !

IT was my fortune to appear upon the Stage of the World in a very licentious Age, wherein it is the Glory of one Man to plot the Ruine and Destruction of another. Pride and envy do so much abound, especially since the distinguishing Names of Whig and Tory have been broached amongst us ; nay the Kingdom hath never been quiet, for those Persons that were of the contrary Opinion were always in danger. The Tory exclaims against the Whig, and the Whig against the Tory : What Confusion and Heart-burnings have these Distinctions bred. How happy would this Nation be if we were all of one way of Worship, viz. All Protestants to live and die of the Reformed Religion, and in the Communion of the Church of England, which in its Purity is the best constituted Church in the World, adorned with the most sound Doctrine, is the Religion I was bred up in, and I hope never to change, because it truly makes a Man to deny Ungodliness and worldly Lusts, and to live soberly and godly in this present World ? 'Tis true, I have read several Books of the Presbyterians, Independants, and Anabaptists, (in which three there is but little difference unless in some few matters ) together with something touching the Religion of the Roman Catholicks ; but I could never understand that ever that Religion was known to Abraham, Isaac or Jacob, or unto our Saviour or his Apostles, altho they call it the old Religion. However let it be the old Religion or not, I never read that any of the Protestants, &c. ever worshipp'd Images, or pray'd to Saints and Angels.

January hath XXXI Days.

Last Year I promis'd better News to tell,
In eighty five ( could I discern it ) well ;
The two prodigious Years are past and gone ;
More silent this by Natures course comes on ;
Wherein benefick Stars do make appear,
Our Governours move in a milder Spi ere.

Unhappy Times, but yet the glorious Stars
 Prefage us Peace, debar intestine Jars,
 That have destroy'd Albion's Felicity,
 And caus'd her t'or to mourn perpetually.

The time may come that England will be free
 Of all that appertains to Popery.

March hath XXXI Days.

What makes great Jove within the Ballance lower
Upon bright Sol hat hath so great a Power,
To disannul all things that look not just:
Princes and Peers must even sloop to Dust.

Chronus is faucy too, on Mars doth strown;
Some great Commanders sure are tumbling down.

4	10 hours 14	The Month of May , and this of June , are attended with many Configurations and Eclipses; but the Eclipses happen in this Month, therefore 'twill be the more significant and of the greater Portents of Evil to the World. Fiunt in Mundo multa in commoda, quando erit in uho mense utriusq; Illuminatis Eclipsis, &amp; præcipue in hu locu, quibus est signifi- catio eorum specialis, saith Hermes. There shall happen many Troubles and Calamities in the World when both the Luminaries shall be eclipsed in one Month. The first is of the Moon in the sign ♄ the Ascendant of Spain, Hunga- ry, Dalmatia, &amp;c. wherefore it may be predicted, that those Places are like to suffer the Vexation and Troubles prefa- ged by this Lunar Defect. That of the Sun will not be so great: God grant London may not be concern'd in the Influence of this Belipse, ♄ is the sign opposite to ♀: 'tis much to be feared, as 'tis celebrated in a sign of the fiery Trigon , 'twill foreshew fiery Exhalati- ons in the Air, Thunder, Lightning, Corruscations, Heats and Droughts, &c.	3499

1 7 af. 54	However notwithstanding what the Coelestial Bodies have lately presag'd; they are all now direct in their Motions, which very aptly signify the prudent In- deavours of most of the Kings and Princes in Europe , in reconciling and composing many of the grand Enormi- ties of late years committed, whereby most Kingdoms and Countries will be in a far better Posture than for some time they have been. And to add to these excellent Undertakings, the Pla- nets are not only direct, but this Month produceth also many benevolent Confi- gurations; all the Stars in the Heavens generally portend Peace and Tranquil- lity. His Majesty of England is pre- sented with many humble Addresses from his Subjects, expressing their Loyal- ty; and if they would become true Protestants too, London and the whole Nation would soon be happier: for much of the Nation's Happiness consists in the Prosperity of that honourable City, and did not h by his envious ☐ afflict the Ascendant thereof, and J by his ☐, this Year would not be half so trou- blefom to our Metropolis, her Magi- strates and Ministers of Justice will have enough to do to suppress stubborn rebel- lious Spirits—.	3 56 9

*December's come, the Year draws near an end,
My Task is done, farewell my Country-Friend,
Till eighty six ; mean time behold bright Jove,
That with three wandering Stars does kindly move.*

*Thine rays of Friendship are, God's Will shall stand;
May Caesar live, and Traitors flee the Land.*

1	o m.	6	The Influence of the late Eclipse of the Moon will soon begin to operate. The ☐ of ☉ and ☿ puts many Princes and Persons to great Disappointments and Inconveniences in their Affairs; the Actions of the World are cloudy as well as the Weather, and Mens Minds for the present strangely confused: howbeit the Month ends in Mundane Affairs far better than it begins; yet we must expect to undergo many Diseases, which will prove hard and difficult to cure, both Body and Purse are in a Consumption. If Norway, Algiers, Vienna, Valonia, &amp;c. are under the sign m, then the Transit of ♀ through that Sign denotes much good to those Places and People there inhabiting. Great things are daily expected in many parts of Europe , especially in England . Law and Religion too are now much disputed, but I hope to the advancement of both; one seems to bandy about the other: Religion hath been the Tennis Ball a long time; but after a Storm comes a Calm; the Heavens smile, and encourage all just and honest Undertakings.— God preserve his Sacred Majesty, and grant him a prosperous Reign	8	9 4

Here follows the Use of the foregoing Tide-Table, viz. How it's to be used; with the Moons Southing, whereby it may be made plain, especially to those whose Imployment chiefly depends on the Seas.

Suppose you desire to know what Time it will be High Water at Bristol, March 6th. 1683. I turn to the Right-hand Page of March, and second Column, (for through every Month in that Page and second Column, the Moon's Southing is inserted) where against the 6th. Day, I find 8 hours 24 minutes A. the Moons Southing in the Afternoon: Then on the Table in the back side of this Leaf against Bristol, &c. 6 hours 45 minutes, which (as the Tide directs being added to 8 hours 24 minutes, (the Moon's Southing) makes 15 hours 40 minutes: So that I conclude, it's exactly High-Water at Bristol, 40 minutes past 3 a Clock in the Morning, March 7th. 1683. Now because the Sum of the two former Numbers exceeds 12 hours, I have subducted 12 hours therefrom, and what remains is the Time of High-Water desired; had not the numbers exceeded 12 hours, there had been no need of Substraction.

Where note, The Tide flows one point of the Compass more at the Spring-Tides (which are the New and Full Moons) than at the Neap-Tides (which are the first and second Quarters.) As also Land-Floods and boisterous Winds oftentimes cause variation, but this is the surest Rule that can be given, in regard the Moon's Southing is Calculated with Latitude.

To gain the hour and minute of the Night by a Sun-Dial, observe this Order; Repair when the Moon shines thereunto, and see how many hours and minutes the Shaddow wants of the Line 12, which subtracted from the Moon's Southing, the remainder is the time of the Night; but if the Shaddow falls past the twelfth Line, add the hour and minute to the hour and minute of the Moon's Southing, and the Sum is the true hour and minute of the Night. This perhaps, will prove Delightful to my Country-Men.

*Time, yea and Tides, pass swift away,
And will for no Man's Leisure stay.*

To find the Rising and Setting of the Sun, and consequently the Length of the Day and Night, in any Latitude whatsoever.

THE exact Time of the Sun's Rising and Setting at London (where the Pole Artick is Elevated above the Horizon 51 deg. 32 minutes) is Annually inserted (in the Right-hand Page through each Month, and last Column for every day in the Year) in my Almanack; so that you may know that without Calculation, 'tis done in a manner by inspection. But if you are desirous to know the time of the Sun's Rising and Setting at any other place differing from the Latitude of London, you must consult the Doctrine of Triangles to gain the Ascensional difference of the Sun, then having the true Latitude of the place, and the Sun's Declination the day proposed, you may easily obtain the Sun's Ascensional difference, by a Table of Artificial Sines and Tangents, such as is at the end of Mr. Streets Tables in his Astronomia Carolina. The Latitude of the place where you desire the time of the Sun's Rising and Setting, may be had in most Ephemerides, especially the Latitude of the Cities and Towns that are most Eminent, whether in England, Scotland, or Ireland; Nay, the Poles Elevation of all the chiefest Cities in the World; together with the true difference of Meridians, from the Honourable City of London, whereby you may exactly gain the Sun's Longitude in the Meridian of any of those places, which will be sufficient for your intended purpose, in regard the Estimate time of the Sun's Rising and Setting is not required.

To find the Sun's Declination, say:

As the Radius

To the Sine of the Sun's greatest Declination,

So the Sine of his distance from the next Equinoctial point,

To the Sign of the Declination desired.

To find his Ascensional difference, say:

As the Cotangent of the Poles Elevation

To the Radius,

So the Tangent of his present Declination,

To the Sine of the Ascensional difference.

And having the Ascensional difference, add the same to 90 degrees (if the Sun be in any of the Northern Signs, as Aries, Taurus, Gemini, Cancer, Leo, or Virgo) or subtract it (if he be in any of the Southern Signs, as Libra, Scorpio, Sagittary, Capricorn, Aquarius, or Pisces) and the sum or remainder gives you the Semi-diurnal Arch, which doubled is the Diurnal Arch, and the Complement thereof to 360 degrees, the Nocturnal Arch; the half of which is the Semi-Nocturnal Arch: All which (being reduced into Time by a Table for that purpose, or by allowing 4 minutes for every degree of the Equinoctial, and for every 15 minutes thereof, one minute of an hour) give you the length of the Day, and the length of the Night, as also the time of the Suns Rising and Setting at that place for which you make the Calculation. Example.

Suppose you desire the time of the Suns Rising and Setting the 18th. of May 1685, at York. The Pole of that place is Elevated just 54 degrees, Sols Longitude at Noon, 7 degrees, 41 min. of Gemini Declination Northward, 21 deg. 38 min. his Ascensional difference 33 deg. 5 minutes, as appears by the following Analogies. For the Suns Declination.

As Rad. Sine  $\odot$  a  $\gamma$  ——— 67. 40. ——— 9. 966136.

So Sine of his great Declinat. — 23. 30. ——— 9. 600700.

To Sine of Declinat. ——— 21. 38. ——— 9. 566836.

For the Ascensional Difference,

As Contang. of the Poles Elevat. — 54. 00. ——— 0. 138739.

To the Radius ——— 90. 00. ——— 10. 000000.

So the Tangent of Declinat. ——— 21. 38. ——— 9. 598354.

To the Sine of Asc. Differ. ——— 33. 05. ——— 9. 737093.

The next Operation.

The Semi-Diurnal Arch in a right Sphere ——— 90. 00.

The Difference Ascensional added ——— 33. 05.

Makes the Semi-Diurnal Arch in an Ob. Sphere ——— 123. 05.

Duplicated produces the iurnal Arch ——— 246. 10.

Comp. to 360 deg. the Nocturnal Arch ——— 113. 50.

The half is the Semi-Nocturnal Arch ——— 56. 55.

Converted into Time.

H. M. S.

The Diur. Arch gives the length of the Day — 16. 24. 40.

The Semi-Diurnal Arch the time of Sun set — 8. 12. 20.

The Nocturnal Arch the length of the Night — 7. 35. 20.

The Semi-Nocturnal Arch the time of Sun rising — 3. 47. 40.

Operate after the same Method for any other part of the World.

Astrological Observations on the Year 1685.

By Daniel Woodward;

THE following Astrological Judgements are deduced according to Art, partly from the late Prodigious Comets, partly from the Conjunctions of the two Superiors, Saturn and Jupiter; partly from the Eclipses of the Luminaries, and partly from the Figure of Heaven at the Ingress of the Sun into the Equinoctial Sign Aries; Calculated from the Caroline Tables thus:

	S.	D.	M.	S.
Longitude of Sol from the Equinox	00.	00.	00.	00.

'Astrological Observations on the Year 1685.

The Position of Heaven, at the Ingress of the Sun into Aries,

The World beneath the Moon it's shapes doth vary,
 And change from this to that; nor can it tarry
 Long in one state, but with it self doth jar,
 Kills and is kill'd in endless Civil War.
 New Fram'd again, 'tis but to dye; the Frame,
 Neither of Bodies nor of Mind's the same.
 But that above the Spheres, the Heavens on High,
 In which God Reigns in Glorious Majesty;
 Free from Old Age, unchang'd, and of one Face,
 Always presents it self in Equal Grace.

Heylin's Cosmog.

Astrological Observations on the Year 1685.

IN my Astrological Conjectures of the Affairs of the Year 1685, many Material things are to be minded, for this Year produces Three Eclipses, Twenty Conjunctions of the Planets, Nineteen Sextiles, Twenty Quartiles, Twenty-one Trines, Seven Oppositions, with God knows how many Lunar Configurations, besides the late Conjunctions of Saturn and Jupiter, the two Comets, and many other things which ought not to be Omitted, in considering the Overtures and Transactions that may happen before the next Solar Revolution in our British Isle; but because I am limited, I must be forced to pass by the Consideration of several things of Eminent Note, and insist on what may be brought into our narrow scanting of Paper, Annually allowed.

1. Upon the Cusp of the fifth and sixth Houses, I find posited Aries, the Ascendent of England, Denmark, and Germany; signifying to the Inhabitants of those Kingdoms, abundance of Joy, Pleasure, Happiness, and Content, especially two third parts of the Year; but towards the last part I fear much Sickness, Losses, Sorrow, and great Vexation. The Sign is fortified by the presents or body of Sol and Trine, of Mars, Lord of the same, but is weakened by the Opposition of Jupiter; the first augments the Happiness and Prosperity of those Kingdoms; the latter confirms the Sorrow and Vexation; yet this I say, much of the good predicted in relation to England's general Affairs, will be lessened, for Mars, Lord of their Ascendent, is afflicted by 4 Planets, two from the Sixth of the Kingdoms Horoscope, and two from the Twelfth, and is only assisted by two, viz. The Trine of the Sun, and the Sextile of benevolent Jove; However, Non obstante, his little assistance. After his tedious Transit through Sagittarius, he enters Capricorn, the Sign of his Exaltation, which indeed, will make the Natives of England amends for all, and fortifie them against the Assaults and Malicious attempts of the greatest of their Enemies. 'Tis truth, England is Menaced to have too many of those Creatures resident within her Territories; but I Predict (and if it proves otherwise, I am willing to suffer the Indignation) their Adversaries shall fall and perish in their own Designs, let them Plot and contrive what they will, none of their Stratagems shall take effect, for England is to be England still: Suppose it does undergo some Afflictions, 'twill be nothing.

thing, they are Chastisements for her Pride and Whoredom ; 'tis never to be totally Subverted, neither can I perceive any Intestine Wars or Forreign Adversary, likely to Invade our Island : Many strange Diseases we must expect, God preserve us from the Plague, or any other Epimedical Distemper, for England has undergone almost all manner of Calamities ; 'tis my hearty Prayer it may never suffer by Famine ; the influence of the late Conjunctions of Saturn and Jupiter, and of the two last Comets, is not over, Ergo I fear very Unseasonable Seasons for some Years to come ; Dry Summers, and excessive Cold Winters, have been long expected by every Calendarigrapher ; and although they do not happen as Man Prognosticates, yet come they will ; God did not send those strange Prodigies and Celestial Congresses for nothing : We have had one Cold Winter of late already, witness the last ; yet I am sure Astrologically, England will speed the best of any Nation in Europe ; the Stars signify a good Year in general for our Merchants. Saturn Retrograde in Virgo, and in Opposition of Mercury, Lord of our Sixth, forewarns us of being too forward in putting too much Trust in our Servants : It likewise denotes great Destruction of the lesser sort of our Cattel, as, Sheep, Hogs, Goats, and the like ; yet these things are nothing ; could we live in Peace within our selves, all would be well.

2. Upon the Cusp of the Seventh descends Taurus, the Horoscope of Ireland, Poland, Russia, &c. The first half of the Sign is placed in the sixth House, the last half wholly in the seventh, which signifies, that the Inhabitants of Ireland, and of the other places, will be most subject, the first part of the Year 1685, to great Sickness, loss of small Cattel, &c. but the latter part to Wars, Law-Suits, Contentions, many Broils and Quarrels ; yet this will be much mitigated, because the Sign Taurus their Ascendent, is befriended with the Auspicious Beams of four Planets, viz. The Sextile of Mercury and Venus, and the Trine of Saturn and the Moon ; besides, Venus, Governess of that Constellation, is Angular, Conjoyn'd with Mercury in her Exaltation, and in strong Reception with the Planet Jupiter, significator of their Friends and Friendship, Joy and Comfort. This does not only much abate the Unhealthfulness of the preceeding Inhabitants Strife and Contentions, but but also much augments the Riches and Prosperity of England. Possibly many misunderstandings may happen between the Irish and some of the English Nation, but nothing I hope, that may Damnifie any person in either of those Territories. The Polander ought to beware of the Turks and Tartars, lest he suffers in a great measure thereby.

3. Upon the Cusp of the Eighth is posited Gemini, the Ascendent of London, Bruges, Norimberg, Flanders, &c. The Position of this Sign upon the eighth Mansion of Heaven Naturally, foreshews Malignant Feavers, Plague, Pestilence, or great Mortality to the People inhabiting the City of London, Bruges, and the other fore-named places, (God preserve the City of London from another Plague.) And to augment the Evil, 'tis afflicted by the four Quartiles of Saturn, Venus, Mercury, Luna, and the Opposition of Mars. Saturn is Lord of the Eighth from London Ascendent, therefore the Misery and Mortality of that Cities Inhabitants, will be the greater: 'Tis now a very Populous City, and filled almost in every Corner with innumerable sorts of persons; the Quartile of Mercury from Fisces, to the Cities Ascendent, denotes, as though many of their own Inhabitants should create much Mischief and many Quarrels, if Mercuries Quartile doth not perform what I have Writ, I fear the Opposition of Mars will, for he hath a tedious Transit this Year through Sagittarius, the opposite Sign in the Zodiack to Gemini, the Ascendent of Englands Metropolis; the Transit will be compleatly for seven Months, too long for Londons Advantage; and if London suffers, what must many other parts of England do? The Stars threaten the City with Troubles and Calamities of several kinds; but the Opposition of Mars and the Square of Saturn, afflicts it most, by reason of ones Ponderosity, and the others seven Months Transit, which being Astrologically considered, denote little good to all those places that have Gemini for their Ascendent: Nay, they create strange Disturbances, horrid Murders, Fires, great Uproars of the Common People, and put the Inhabitants in general into many Fears, Doubts, and Discontents; yet I hope the benevolent Trine of Jove to our Cities Ascendent, will much abate those many Evils. However, Sicknes and difficult Diseases, seem much to abound, which is confirm'd by the Eclipse of the Moon in the Mid-Heaven, in the Sign Gemini,

November

Astrological Observations on the Year 1685.

November the 30th, about a 11 of the Clock at Night. I have known London many Years, but all the time never knew so many Execrable Murders as were committed in and about that City, from the beginning of April, to the latter-end of June, 1684. all which time almost, Mars Transited London's Ascendent, where he met first with the Conjunction of Mercury, secondly the Quartile of Jupiter, and last of all, with the Conjunction of the Sun, enough in an Astrological sence, to create such kind of Damnable Actions, especially in such Plotting, Contriving, Cursed Times, when the inclinations of Men are for nothing but Distractions and Confusion. The Opposition of a Planet to any Cities Ascendent, is accounted by Astrologers as injurious to that City, as his Transit through the same Sign. — Caveat Londinum.

Those that have perus'd any of my Almanacks Published since the Year 1681, cannot but remember how near I Predicted the many Troubles and Distractions, with other things, we have had in England since the aforesaid time, especially by Reading those Almanacks for the Year 83. and 84. wherefore I need not repeat those Predictions here, because they are Printed there.

Of the ECLIPSES this present Year.

THE Luminaries or Lights of Heaven, will be three times Obscured from the sight of the Inhabitants of the Terrestrial Globe, viz. The Sun will be Eclipsed once and the Moon twice, whereof but one of them will be Visible (to speak of) in England. The first Eclipse will be of the Moon, the 6 day of June, about 6 of the Clock at Night, in 26 Degrees of the Celestial Sign Sagittary. This Eclipse will be invisible in England, because the Moon at the time she suffers the defect, will be beneath the Eastern Horizon, upon the Cusp of the second House, in the Latitude of London. At this Celebration the beginning of Sagittary ascends, Virgo Culminates, the Moon, separates from the Opposition of Venus, in Opposition of the Sun, and applies to Opposition of Mercury, Trine of Saturn, and Quartile of Jupiter; Saturn is in the Ninth Angle in Virgo, from whom both Venus and Sol lately seperated their Quartile Rayes; so hath Mars, tho' by Retrogation, the Sun and Venus from the Trine of Jupiter, and Mars, by his Crab-like motion, from an Opposition of them both likewise, as will be evident to any person person that pleases to set the Scheme. This Eclipse begins in the second House, and ends in the first, therefore its Influence will not only Operate on the Health and Life of Mortals, but on their Estates also. The places passive under the Influence, France, Spain, Hungaria, Paris, Ierusalem, Portugal, &c. Poor London is not exempted, I pray God that City does suffer this Year more than ordinary, for it is not a little menaced by the Cælestial Powers.

Astrological Observations on the Year 1685.

The Second Eclipse will be of the Sun, the 21 day of June, in 10 Degrees of the Sign Cancer; the Eclipse will be small, and scarcely Visible to us in England, because the Sun, at this Celebration, will be just descending our Horizon. The Position of Heaven stands thus; The Eighth Degree of the Cælestial Goat ascends, the middle of Scorpio Culminates, Mars, Sol, Venus, and the Moon are Angular, Saturn's in the House of Death, but beholds the Luminaries by a Sextile Aspect, therefore the Portents of this Eclipse will be the less Evil; but to have two Eclipses in one Month, is very Ominous to the World, especially to those parts where the Effects happen, because such a thing seldom changeth; Jupiter's posited upon the Cusp of the Ninth, in Quartile to the Sun, Moon, and Venus; the Moon separates from the Conjunction of Mercury, in Conjunction with the Sun, and applies to the Conjunction of Venus, Sextile of Saturn, Quartile of Jupiter, and Trine of Mars. As this Eclipse is Celebrated in the Seventh, it will have relation to Wars, Strife, and Contention; presages ill Marriages, long and tedious Law-Suits, and because the defect of the Sun happens in the Watery Trigon, and in the Seventh, it signifies much Thieving and Robbing both at Sea and Land, Foggy, Misty, Stormy Weather; many Inundations and overflowing of the Sea-banks; for Solar Eclipses have ever been fatal both to the Kings and Kingdoms Princes, States, and their Dominions. All Cities, Towns, and Countries, under Cancer, will be passive, whereof Holland, Scotland, &c. will suffer in the greatest measure.

The Third Eclipse will be of the Moon, the 30th. of November, about a 11 of the Clock at Night, Visible to England, (if Clouds interpose nor) Total and Central, and will be well worth any Ingenious Persons Observation, that is furnished with fit Instruments for such a purpose. Seeing the Eclipse is great, I will insert the Scheme.

The

Astrological Observations on the Year 1685.

The Portents of this Eclipse of the Moon, I hope will be better handled by some of our Annual Writers, that are more learned in things of this Nature ; however, I will make bold to dissent a little on its general signification. Eclipses Luminarium super Civitates, Provincias, et Regna, magis quam super Privata Conditionis, homines aut etiam super Reges Respiciunt, enim Multitudinem. Eclipses of the Luminaries, Operate more forcibly upon Cities, Provinces, and Kingdoms, than upon Men of private Condition, or upon Kings or Princes, for their effects respect the Multitude, or many People. Yet when any considerable Eclipse happen near the Radical Ascendent, Mid-Heaven, or near the place of the Sun or Moon, or Lord of the Ascendent, in any particular Persons Nativity, that Person will assured taste of the Eclipses Influence, which will be chiefly manifest upon his Body, bringing (if not Death) very hard, difficult, and almost incurable Diseases ; with many other unthought of Afflictions, ons, Croſſes, and Troubles in his Affairs. He that knows his own Nativity, may know when any of this happens; but he that knows it not, may feel the Influence, and know not for what cause; for, Ex Eclipsibus, magni effectus Proveniunt: Viz. From the Influence of Eclipses, great and wonderful effects do succeed. Their significations in all Ages, have been very Ominous, and caused Mens minds to be strangely terrified by a secret and occult sense, of the Miseries and Calamities: Eclipses preſage to be near at hand, or to follow presently, after any such Congresses: Nay, daily Experience testifies, that Seditions, Tumults, Famine, Storms of Hail, great Inundations, Plagues, Alterations of Laws and Customs, Wars, Drouth, &c. always follow any Considerable Eclipse of either of the Luminaries; and the greater the Eclipse is, the greater the Calamities. This Eclipse which I here treat of, will be very great, and he that rightly views the Scheme, will find a very ill Position of the Heavens, few Balsamick Configurations to heal its Evil Effects. 'Twill be Celebrated in the Mid-Heaven, the House of Principality and Dominion, and in the Sign Gemini, the Ascendent of London. As the 10th. House is passive, so will the Men and things thereby signified; for the Eclipse will not only afflict the Uulgar Man, but its Influence will Operate also upon Emperors, Kings, Princes, and their Dominions, Great and Noble Men, Magistrates, Governours, and most that be in Authority or bear any Rule; for the Medium Caeli doth not only suffer by the defect and presents of Cauda Draconis (or the Moons South Noe) but likewise by the Malevolent Beams of Saturn and Mercury, therefore I fear the effects will manifest themselves with a Vengeance. Gemini is a Sign of the Airy Trigon, or Humane Triplicity, and an Eclipse happening therein, preſages Stormy Tempestuous Weather, very dangerous and hurtful to Man-kind, Cruel Sickneſs, Pestilential Diseases, Abortive Births; and to add Fuel to the Fire, the nimble Planet Mercury, is Almuter of the Eclipse, as being Lord of the place deficient and Angle succeeding; who of his own Nature, denotes Cold, Dry, Melancholly Diseases, Coughs, Consumptions, &c. wherefore I fear a Sickly Winter to follow. Thus much of Eclipses and of the Judgement of the whole Year.

To conclude, That as I am an Astrological Professor and a Practitioner in its several parts, so I dare undertake to Teach the same to any that desire to understand it; To wit, First

'Astrological Observations on the Year 1685.'

First the Horary part, shewing the Method of Resolving all manner of Questions belonging to the Body or Estate of Man: As, Life whether long or short? Rich or Poor? What part of the Life is like to be most prosperous? What part of the World, City or Country, is best to live in? And to be short, all other Legal Demands, whose Solution is contain'd within the Perimeter of this Sublime Mysterious Science.

Secondly, The part Genethliacal, shewing the manner of Rectifying, Directing, and passing Judgement on Nativities, wherein is Naturally foreseen the most Remarkable Accidents that may happen during the Race of man's Life. Shewing how to Calculate the Longitude, Latitude, Declination, and Ascension of the Planets.

Thirdly, The Judgement of the World, shewing how to Calculate and Judge an Annual Revolution, Compose Monthly Observations, the Calculation of Eclipses, and to give the signification of the same; with the Portents of Comets, or any Eminent Configuration of the Caelestial Bodies; the Rising, Southing, and Setting of the Moon, or any of the Wandering Stars; together with the Use of the Globes, Caelestial and Terrestrial.

Pulchritudo Cali est Gloria Astrorum.

Lastly, As I am a Professor of Astrology, so I am of Physick, and have always Medicaments ready prepared and fitted for the Cure of most Diseases Cureable, incident to the Bodies of Men, Women, and Children, proceeding of what Cause; Nature, or Quality toever: But especially, a Famous Cordial Pill, whose Power and wonderful Operation is so effectual, that it hath not its Equal, in Rooting out and Curing Chronical, and the most Difficult Distempers; for which this Pill may be truly term'd an Universal Medicine, as being fitted to all Ages, Humours, Sexes, and Constitutions; Published mostly for the benefit of the Diseased, that may possibly stand in need of the Inexhaustible Vertues of this Unparallel'd Medicament: Known by Thousands to be the most Excellent and most certain Medicine in the whole Universe, to assist and fortifie decaying Nature; for whatever Unnatural or Destructive matter lies in the Bodies of Men, these Pills will soon drive it out, and in its place render the Body Healthful. Having been effectual in Curing the Dropsie, Gripping in the Guts, Extreame pains of the Gut, Green-sickness, all manner of Surfeits, Piles, Bad Digestions, ons, Exulceration of the Kidneys, Convulsion-fits, Jaundies, Difficulty of Breathing, Head-ach, Stoppage of the Stomach, Sore Eyes, Fevers, Trembling, fits of the Mother, and Vapours from the Spleen, Agues, Stone and Gravel in the Kidneys, Stone in the Bladder; and for the Scurvy, they are the best of Pills. They Cure many other Infirmities, as the Printed Book of their Use and Vertues will declare. They are an Antidote against any Infectious Disease; scarce a Malady from Head to Foot, but these Pills (with Gods permission) will be found very assisting; besides, they will not corrupt if you keep them from moisture) tho' kept an hundred Years, and that no Drug-Medicine will do; therefore they are serviceable for those that Sail to the East or West-Indies; for some of them that go such long Voyages, miserably perish for want of so Universal a helper. Now seeing these Pills are so beneficial for those that go to Sea, the like for those that live in the Country remote from able Physicians, wherefore I advise such not to be wanting of some of these Pills in their Houses, being in a manner Physick upon all occasions, and for that reason (God willing) I will be well provided therewith: Price the whole Box, Half a Crown, and Eighteen-pence the Half Box, with Printed Directions how to take them: And, for the benefit of the meaner sort of People, these Pills are Sold in Taymouth by Mr. Samuel Fenn, Grocer, by the Dutch Church. In Guilford by Mr. Ibo. Thetcher, Coach-Harness-maker, over-against the Bell. In Travel by Mr. Rixon, Girt-Web-maker, at the White Hart, in Middle-street. In Beckles by Mrs. Carter in Bridge-street. In Pakefield by Mr. Pope, Grocer and Chandler. In Burntwood by Mr. Will. Penn, Baker, at the Sarazens-Head. In Debtford the Lower, by Nurse Norberry, near the Queens head-Tavern. In Bristol by Mr. John James, Hornier, at his shop at the Tower on the Key. And by Mr. Anthony Patch, at his shop at the lower-end of High-street. near Nicholas-Gate, in the same City.

In London they are sold by Mr. Nich. Woolfe, Book-seller, at the 7 Stars in Newgate-street. By Mr. Francis Lewcee, Meal-man, by the sign of the Castle, over-against the end of Worcester-street, in the Strand. By Mr. Edmund Hall, Glass-seller, by the Red-Cross-Tavern in Barbican: And at my House at the Globe in Arundel-street, in the Strand.

Astrological Observations on the Year 1685:

If any Shop-keeper living in the Country, is willing to sell any of these Famous Pills where they are not sold, this is to give him notice, that he may be furnished with what quantity he pleases, and Printed Directions of their Use and Vertues, if he will send to me at the sign of the Globe in Arundel-Street by St. Clements Church, in the Strand, London, to whom I will allow a considerable Profit for his pains in vending them, and be accountable for all usual Charges: Besides, he shall have a Printed Table to hang at his Door; and (after I know his Name, Trade, and place he lives at) Hand-Bills to inform the Town and Country people, Spring and Fall, that at such a mans House are such Pills to be Sold, and at such a Price.

My Hours are from Morning till Night, none between those hours spent in their Labour.
